

BEC 1 Vantage

Domaine	Economie et Services
Filière	Economie d'entreprise
Orientation	Economie d'entreprise (EE)
Mode de formation	Plein temps

Informations générales

Nom:	:	BEC 1 Vantage
Identifiant:	:	HEG-BEC1VA
Années académiques	:	2017-2018, 2018-2019
Responsable:	:	Laurence Larghi
Charge de travail:	:	32 heures d'études
Périodes encadrées:	:	30 (= 22.5 heures)

Semestre	E1	S1	S2	E2	S3	S4	E3	S5	S6
Cours								30

Connaissances préalables recommandées

Candidates apply for the course in writing and must fulfil a number of criteria to be accepted, notably a clear B2.1 entry level, a minimum grade of 5 for intermediate students and 4.5 for advanced students in Module 4, willingness to do 2-3 hours homework per week, and a high level of motivation.

Objectifs

- To gain a clear understanding of the BEC Vantage examination
- To systematically improve reading, listening, speaking and writing skills
- To extend receptive and productive knowledge of business vocabulary
- To eliminate grammatical errors and extend grammatical range and complexity

Contenu et formes d'enseignement

Répartition des périodes indiquée à titre informatif.

Cours: 30 périodes

- The course reviews and improves English for modern business in an international context, and targets success on the Cambridge BEC Exam - Vantage - CEFR B2. Reading, listening, speaking, writing, vocabulary and grammar receive focused attention on important aspects of each and are used in an integrated way. The class uses a course book and authentic material from the world of business. Students will practice all writing genres on the exam, as well as the speaking test situations. An overview of the examination is provided in the first semester.

Bibliographie

To be advised by the teacher.

Contrôle de connaissances

This is the first part of a two-semester course. There is no internal examination as students will take the BEC Vantage examination at the end of the second semester.

Calcul de la note finale

Note finale = moyenne examen x 1

Fiche validée le 21.07.2017 par Borter Silna